

Commitment to Drama Ministry

House Rules:

I promise to respect the leader(s). I will make it safe and enjoyable for everyone by following instructions. If I can't handle it today, my parents will be phoned to pick me up immediately. I will be expected to discuss the problem with my leader(s) right away, AND I can also expect to return to the team when I am ready and have been approved.

I will bring my personal Bible and be dressed appropriately for active moving and/or artwork.

I understand that I am ministering through the dramatic work: sharing the Gospel with those who may hear it for the first time. This means that I may be the first person to share Jesus with them through my actions: rehearsals, presentation time and off-hours. I will keep this in mind so that I can present Jesus truthfully. I am making this ministry a high priority in my life; obeying my parents and following my leader(s) is crucial.

Love is choosing to put another's needs ahead of my own desires.

Phil. 2:14-16 Do everything without complaining or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe as you hold out the word of life...

PARENTS: after having your youth read and sign the above promise, post this upper section at home.
