Don't go to church--Marry a local congregation – become part of it!

–because God has called you to serve there. Do we change congregations like tee-shirts? It's not about what we get from an assembly, but that we are called to be there; me focused to Him focused.

Not satisfied with your experiences? Then ask God what He wants you to do about it, and do it, full of faith.

Otherwise, it's like the eye saying to the body, "I'm leaving for another body because I don't like the new haircut or the weight we've put on."

Do leave IF you have followed Scripture concerning how to bring repentance over false teaching, or sin with the leadership and the leaders remain unrepentant. But make sure you understand what God wants of you and the leaders, first. Read carefully the word and make sure you, yourself, aren't in sin. You must be full of forgiveness.

Read: Matthew 18:7–20; 1 Timothy 5; Titus, and Luke 17:1–4, before doing anything except praying. Remember, "The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance." 2 Peter 3:9.

Note what you get out of these passages:

The LORD watches

Psalm 121
