This “chart” is only to help you recognize the spiritual gifts (manifestations), not naming or classifying them all, but this was created to make it easier to view them.

The 9 Fruit are the evidence of the indwelling Christ: making you more like Jesus. Gal 5:22-23, “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control...” These fruit keep your gifts in check and make you effective in your walk and ministry.

The 9 Gifts seen in 1Cor. 12 are the evidence of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit: Power (Greek: dunamis = explosive force) to reproduce the ministry of Jesus through the Holy Spirit at rebirth.

GIFTS 1Cor. 12 'to edify the church'	special signs	serving signs	spreading signs
Revelation	word of wisdom foretelling, consolation Acts 6:10	word of knowledge exhortation, consolation Acts 5:1-6	discerning spirits Acts 13:8-11
Power	gifts of healing consolation, conviction Acts 9:35	working of miracles exhortation, conviction Mat 14:25	faith supernatural trust in God Mat 17:20
Utterance	tongues communication, conviction Acts 2:4	interpretation of tongues communication, conviction Daniel 5:25-28	prohecy foretelling (prediction) and forthtelling (preaching) 1 Cor. 14:29-32

You can find more gifts listed elsewhere in Scripture such as administration and hospitality. These can be natural gifts or talents you are born with that help you to serve/work to edify the believers and pre-christians and can work in a spiritual application such as when a pastor uses a natural gift or talent of administration to create a new program or ministry to benefit the community or church.

Look up: Acts 2:38-39 “The Holy Spirit IS the gift” apart from Him there is no gift/power; Acts 17:6; 1Cor. 12; Rom. 12; 1Peter 4:10; Singleness as a gift of the Spirit 1Cor. 7 (vs.7-8 specifically); 1Cor. 14. Charismata: indefinable grace. Charis = grace (the gifts of grace.) “signs, wonders and works of power,” John 4:10 Jesus IS “the Gift of God.” Seek the Giver and all these things shall be added to you.
